

Epidemics
Of Fires.

The record of fires as reported by the daily papers is appalling, and with what interest we look to see the amount of insurance carried. Your turn may come next and it may never come, but the safest plan is to be ready. Better attend to this now. There are thousands of ways to start a conflagration. The only safe way is to keep well insured. We are agents for the leading companies.

BEAR WALLOW ITEMS.

Mr. A. Ward has returned from North Dakota, where he has been for some time looking at the country. He likes the country fine, and has taken him up a homestead near Kenmare N. D. He is going to move his family there in the spring.

Jesse Jones, who has been at work at Ritter, W. Va., for some time, is on the ridge now and will stay a few days.

G. W. Christian, of Harman, Va., spent Saturday night with David Christian of this place.

Quite a number of friends and neighbors spent Sunday with David Christian. They came in to see T. B. Elswick and Ellen McGlothlin as they were going to leave on Monday for their homes in Boyd Co., Ky. They have been visiting friends and relatives at and near this place for three weeks.

B. P. Payne, of Doak, Va., was on our ridge Monday.

Some of our young people from this place attended church at Knob, Va., Sunday.

Z. Ward, of this place, went to Big Creek Saturday, returning Monday.

There is a young doctor by the name of T. H. Higgins located at Alvis Bloomis He is from N. C., and has a good recommendation. I suppose he will practice his profession in this section. We wish him success.

Z. D. Holbrooks will preach the funeral of old Mrs. Sanders at Laird's Chapel the fourth Sunday in this month.

RICHLANDS NEWS.

We are glad to notice in the last issue of the REPUBLICAN, Oct. 5th, that a mass-meeting of the Republican party will be held at Tazewell, on the 14th inst. to take action on nomination of a candidate to represent Tazewell county in the next House of Delegates of Virginia. Why not nominate a true life-long Republican, as other counties of Southwest Virginia are falling into line? Let us respond promptly to the call. I take the privilege of saying that Richlands will be represented at the meeting. Of course we have our favorite but will support any true Republican.

I notice U. S. Deputy Marshal R. M. Baldwin in town summoning witnesses for the United States vs. Strouth and others for the murder of our friend George W. Ratliff last June.

The second quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church was held at Pounding Mill, Va., last Saturday and Sunday. Dinner was served on the ground and there was a large congregation both days.

Rev. Webb preached his farewell sermon for this year last Sunday at 11 a. m. at this place. We like Bro. Webb very much and hope he may be returned to the work on this circuit.

Mr. John Helton and wife stopped over at this place to visit friends at the parsonage.

We are very dry and needing rain badly. Farmers are trying to sow wheat, but are making slow progress.

Mr. McMurdock, of the U. S. Army is in our town buying horses for the army.

Our town is quite lively over the outlook for a new railroad from this place to Buchanan county road fields and the timber lands of the Yellow Poplar Lumber Company. That company owns many thousands of acres of timber lands.

Jubilee National Convention of Christian Church.

In 1849 delegates from a number of Christian churches met in Cincinnati and organized "The American Christian Missionary Society." Today that Society begins its fiftieth annual convention in the same city. It will continue in session for several days. Ten thousand delegates are expected to attend this Jubilee Convention. Yesterday Revs. Philip Johnson and J. N. Harman, Mr. Wm. L. Britts, Mrs. Geo. W. Gillespie and Miss Annie Wingo, left for Cincinnati to attend the convention as delegates from the Christian church here.

For House of Delegates.

I announce myself a candidate to represent the people of Tazewell county in the next House of Delegates of Virginia. Soliciting the support of my friends, I am Yours truly,
JOSEPH S. MOSS.

Linoleum and oil cloths at—
Alexander's.
31.

Come to county court next Tuesday prepared to settle your subscription account.

School Books, Slates, Pencils, Tablets, Pens and Ink at—
Jackson's.

Judge S. C. Graham went to Washington, D. C., yesterday on professional business.

Full line of school supplies, and the prices are all right at—
Jackson's.

Mrs. J. C. Nelson, from Red Sulphur, West Va., is very ill at the residence of Mr. M. C. McCorkle.

Major R. R. Henry started to Abingdon on Tuesday afternoon to attend United States District Court, which is now being held at that place by Judge John Paul.

Free school and High School books at wholesale and retail at—
Jackson's.

Mrs. R. B. Gillespie, with her sons Berkeley and Victor Rees, is paying a visit to relatives in Roanoke. The Doctor seems to be rather lonely as a bachelor.

Our stock of school supplies is one of the best ever brought to this town, and the prices will suit you.—Dodd & Co.

From letters received from Bert Ratliff and Fred Pendleton they are very much pleased at Newberry College, South Carolina.

Alexander has received his Silk and Satin Waists; also Jackets and capes—real beauties they are too.

Mr. M. C. McCorkle, who has just been at Graham, informs us that a force of hands is now engaged putting the furnace in repair, and that it would go into blast as soon as possible.

It is understood that Mr. Joseph S. Moss will not accept the nomination for the House of Delegates tendered him by the Democrats, but will make the race as an independent candidate.

There is no use hunting for a better place than Dodd & Co.'s to get school books or school supplies for your children. They have everything in those lines. Call on them.

Rev. F. Alexander and wife spent several days with their daughter, Mrs. R. M. Baldwin the first of the week. They were on their way to Conference at Bluefield, to which place they went on Tuesday afternoon.

A gentleman who was at Bluefield yesterday says he never saw the like of chickens that he saw in coops on the streets there. Evidently due preparation was made for the conference of Methodist preachers.

Excellent advantages are offered for the study of French at Tazewell College. The teacher has had wide experience in teaching the subject and speaks the language almost as fluently as English.

Rev. H. W. Leslie, of Bristol, Va., was in town and preached in the Baptist church on Tuesday night. Owing to the insufficient notice of the service the congregation was not as large as it should have been. Mr. Leslie is doing evangelistic work.

We are agents for the United Shirt and Collar Co., and handle Shirts, Collars and Cuffs direct from the factory. There is comfort in a shirt that fits right—these do.
HARMAN & BOTTIMORE.

Duston & Sons have received a large amount of handsome fixtures for their new store room. There were over two car loads, and their store room, when filled up, will, perhaps, be the handsomest retail grocery store in Southwest Va.

The Grand Camp of Virginia Veterans met in annual session at Pulaski, Va., on yesterday. There was a large attendance, forty or fifty camps being represented. First Lieutenant Grand Commander S. H. Bolling, of Petersburg, presided.

We have received a large line of Winter clothing direct from the manufacturer—bought before the recent advance in price. Our customers get the benefit of these low prices—we have never had better values or better styles. We can fit you—stout, regular, or long and slim. They are here for your inspection.
HARMAN & BOTTIMORE.

Grand Lecturer W. J. Hubbard and Deputy Grand Lecturer James O'Keefe went to Castlewood, in Russell county, on Tuesday, where they instituted a new Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, Tuesday night, which will be known as Castlewood Chapter R. A. Masons.

Owing to the change which Mr. Long is now making in his telephone system, there will be interruptions in the service at times during the next two weeks, as it will require that amount of time to make the alteration in the system. Then the service will be much better than it has ever been.

Mr. I. C. Dodd, of Dodd & Co., who had been for about two weeks in New York buying goods for his firm, is back home. He says he has laid in a splendid stock for the fall and holiday trade, which will meet the approval of his customers.

Occasionally a subscriber who has been receiving and reading our paper for a year or two years refuses to take the paper out of the office, without settling his account. This is not fair, we might say not honest. We intend to make all such persons pay what they owe us.

Mr. H. G. Peery has sold an interest in the Tazewell Supply Company, at North Tazewell, to his brother, J. Arthur Peery. Both of these gentlemen are thorough business men and their already large trade is steadily increasing. The merchant who advertises and pushes his business is the one who succeeds these times.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Louise Josephine Peck and Rev. Samuel D. Long. The prospective bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Peck, of Pearisburg, Va. Rev. Long is presiding elder of Radford District of the Holston Conference, M. E. Church, South. The marriage will take place in the Methodist church at Pearisburg on the afternoon of the 18th inst.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. W. Walton and their little son Jo, left for Roanoke on Saturday. Mr. Walton moved all his household effects to Roanoke where he will become a permanent resident. We are informed that the wholesale grocery firm of Stras, Walton & Co. is doing a fine business, which is gratifying to the Tazewell friends of the gentlemen who constitute the firm.

IN STOCK

We have had so much satisfaction expressed with our China and Deft ware that we have decided to carry a larger, finer and more novel stock than ever. Our Mr. Dodd is in the Northern Markets now making every investigation necessary to buying and adding to our various lines.

The Book Department will be greatly replenished. The choice Novels and Books of every kind will be added with a view to increasing the size of Stock, making this the Best Book Store in Tazewell.

Our Grocery Department will maintain its present standard of Good Quality. We do not allow anyone to sell goods Cheaper than we sell them.

A Child Can

buy as cheaply as a grown person, because we have only one Cash Price; the same to everybody alike.

Speaking of a Child buying things reminds us that we have a lot of things useful to Children; things they must have for School Use—for instance, a Large Pencil Tablet for 1c., a better one for 5c., a Good Ink Tablet for 5c. and up, all very fine paper. Children can buy their Inks, Pencils, School Bags, Companions and any other articles for school use for less money than similar articles can be bought anywhere. Give the Children a chance to prove these statements. We treat Little Folks here same as we do Grown Ups.

Ever know how much Cheaper you can buy goods for cash than on long credit?

A hunter came in from Poor Valley yesterday with one pheasant and ten squirrels. He brought the game here to sell.

There were a number of Methodist preachers in town on Tuesday, en route to the annual conference at Bluefield. Some of them had their wives with them.

J. D. Alexander has a very attractive advertisement in this issue, calling attention to many attractive things in his Fall and Winter stock.

Mr. Joseph S. Moss, candidate for the House of Delegates, was in town yesterday, but none of the Democratic leaders seemed anxious to interview him.

Next Monday the regular season for shooting partridges will open in our county. There has been some shooting before the open season. This was wrong.

An evening daily paper, the News, has been started at Richmond. It is to be the organ of the Martin wing of the Democratic party.

The James F. Hurt Insurance Agency calls attention to the fact that there has been an "epidemic of fires" this year, and offers to protect property holders against the epidemic.

Dr. J. C. Wilson, a celebrated specialist from Philadelphia, will arrive at Tazewell today. He comes to make a professional visit to Mrs. Joseph S. Gillespie, who remains alarmingly ill.

Mr. T. E. George, our county clerk, is at Abingdon attending the United States Court. He is a witness for the prosecution in the case of the U. S. vs. Strouth and others who killed Geo. W. Ratliff.

Dodd & Co. have a supply of all kinds of school books which they will sell you at regular, bottom prices.

The Republicans of Tazewell county will assemble in mass meeting at the court house on next Saturday, the 14th inst. It is believed a large number of voters will attend the meeting from all sections of the county.

Rev. M. T. Turner, of the Episcopal Church, will preach at Stras Memorial Church on Sunday, the 15th inst., morning and night. All are cordially invited.

Mr. J. H. Shannon at September court purchased a cold chisel and laid it on the counter at the Racket Store. Some one picked it up, he hopes, by mistake. Mr. Shannon would be thankful if the person who took the chisel would return it.

The membership of the Methodist church at this place and of the church at North Tazewell have sent a petition to Bishop Wilson for the return of Rev. J. S. French as their pastor. The congregations are about a unit in this matter.

Mr. Milton H. Rush, of Bristol, Va., who was recently appointed Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue for the Sixth Collection District, composed of the counties of Washington, Tazewell, Russell, Smyth and Grayson, was in our town on Tuesday. He went to Pocahontas Tuesday afternoon to look after the Government's revenue interests at that place.

Our boot and shoe trade has constantly increased—a sure sign of good value. Shrewd customers do not return when they do not get the worth of their money. It is our intention to make all of our customers satisfied. We desire to please you and we know of no better way to do so than to give you "the best goods for the least money."
HARMAN & BOTTIMORE.

Grand Lecturer W. J. Hubbard, of the Grand Chapter of Virginia Royal Arch Masons, visited O'Keefe Chapter at this place last Monday night. There were two candidates present, and the Grand Lecturer conferred the degrees of Mark Master, Past Master and Royal and Select upon the candidates. There were a number of companions present to assist in and witness the work.

Jno. E. Jackson guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for lagrippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and it is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.
4-m

The twenty-sixth annual session of the Holston Conference of the M. E. Church, South, met yesterday morning, in the Eland Street church, at Bluefield, W. Va. It is thought at least four hundred ministers and delegates will attend the session. The Conference is presided over by Bishop A. W. Wilson. A number of Methodists from Tazewell, North Tazewell and the county will visit Bluefield while the Conference is in session.

Rev. J. S. French preached his last sermon for the Conference year in the Methodist church on last Sunday night. There was a very large congregation present and the sermon was a splendid one. He preached from the text: "What think ye of Christ?" During its delivery the congregation gave the most earnest attention. Mr. French has won the affections of the membership of his church and the respect and friendship of all the people of Tazewell.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by Jno. E. Jackson.

Venezuela Is Satisfied.

Caracas, October 7.—The award of the Anglo-Venezuelan boundary arbitration tribunal has been received here with satisfaction. The intelligent classes consider that the possession of Barima Point will prove of great advantage to Venezuela.

In the course of an interview with the reporter of the Associated Press today, President Andrade said:

"The result is a cause of rejoicing for this country, because justice and the laws of the civilized world have restored a portion of usurped territory and demonstrated the soundness of our claim."
